

KINSHIP CAREGIVER AFFIDAVIT

Under O.C.G.A. § 20-2-690.1, a person who is caring for a child in their home is required to enroll that child in school. Under Georgia State Department of Education Rule 160-5-1-.28(b), any person who is caring for a child in their home is allowed to enroll the child in school, even if the caregiver does not have any formal custody or guardianship order. If the school district has any questions about the child's eligibility to enroll, the school district is required to provisionally enroll the child for 30 days, pursuant to Rule 160-5-1-.28(c), to allow the caregiver time to resolve the problem without having the child miss school. The use of the Kinship Caregiver Affidavit is not required to enroll a child in school, but it will allow a caregiver to consent to services which usually require parental consent. Those services are:

- (1) Educational services;
- (2) Medical services directly related to academic enrollment; and
- (3) Curricular or extracurricular activities.

NOTICES UNDER O.C.G.A. § 20-1-16:

- This declaration does not affect the rights of the named child's parent or legal guardian regarding the care, custody, and control of the child and it does not mean that the kinship caregiver has legal custody of the child.
- A person that relies on this affidavit has no obligation to make any further inquiry or investigation.
- This affidavit is not valid for more than one year after the date on which it is executed.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

TO SCHOOL OFFICIALS:

- The school system may require additional reasonable evidence that the kinship caregiver resides at the address provided in item 4 of the affidavit.

TO HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS AND HEALTH CARE SERVICE PLANS:

- No person that acts in good faith reliance upon a kinship caregiver's affidavit to render educational services or medical services directly related to academic enrollment or any curricular or extracurricular activities, without actual knowledge of facts contrary to those stated in the affidavit, shall be subject to criminal prosecution or civil liability to any person, or subject to any professional disciplinary action, for such reliance if the applicable portions of the form are completed.
